At the ISA World Congress we had 2 round tables and joint sessions with WG 08 Society and Emotions and TG 11 Violence and Society.

We also organized a beautiful table in honor of the French sociologist David Le Breton, which had the intense participation of fellow sociologists from Brazil, France and others countries.

In addition, around 90 papers in the form of oral communication were presented in the sessions of our RC, which had an intense schedule at all the days of the event.
